Technical Assistance Orientation

On February 14th, 2015, the Technical Assistance (TA) orientation was held. The Technical Assistance program is available to eligible entrepreneurial and microenterprise businesses in Plumas County through the Plumas County Community Development Block Grant (CDBG).

The “Kick Off” was a huge success. The enthusiasm and intensity was palpable! Various consultants were ready and excited to work with the thirty-one enrolled entrepreneurial and microenterprise businesses on this exciting journey.

Traci Holt and Tomas Yagerhofer reviewed the grant guidelines and shared their vision for this business intensive program. Then business consultants, Laurie Wann, Jennifer Petersen, Erica Pine, and Julia Gussett introduced themselves, talked about their niches within the program, their individual strategies, and goals in working with the enrolled participants.

Proposed was a series of seven beneficial business workshops to be held the last Saturday of each month. Qualified participants will receive training and assistance from the consultants free of charge. The non-eligible participants will be able to attend several workshops free of charge, and more intense workshops for a fee.

We are confident this program will help the enrolled participant’s move forward and take their businesses to new heights! We have developed it with their needs in mind, and welcome their feedback and suggestions.

Annual Job Fair (Graeagle & Quincy)

The Business and Career Network hosted two job fairs one in Graeagle, CA March 18th and the other in Quincy, CA on March 19th.

Each job fair was from 2:00pm to 4:00pm with employers setting up in advance getting prepared for job seekers.

In Quincy, even before the doors opened there were job seekers with resumes in hand, ready to meet with employers and complete standard applications on site.

Several jobseekers were dressed in interview attire and participated in informal interviews during both afternoons. A number of youth also attended, giving them the opportunity to see how a job fair could be beneficial to them and also to view the professional world. They were also able to learn about the employment options available within their community.

Most employers were actively hiring for current positions with others collecting applications for their applicant pool. Plumas County Sheriff's Department met with prospective employees for their Dispatch position and the United States Forest Service brought a team of staff members who talked with interested candidates, providing information about the hiring process including specific requirements for various positions within the service.

In Graeagle many of the local businesses involved in the tourism industry were hiring, along with Graeagle Market who had 3 full time year round positions available. At both venues the business and entity representatives were delighted with the chance to meet with several prospective employees all under one roof and for the opportunity to participate in local, well-organized job fairs.

This Quarter's Success Stories

Job Seeker Success story

Howard Morrison came into the Plumas Business and Career Network in January 5, 2015 seeking assistance with Job Search. He is a long-time resident of Quincy and had been recently laid-off from a service technician position. Howard met with a Career Center Advisor and was soon enrolled. Both Howard and his CCA put together a job search plan to help him successfully find full-time employment. He wanted assistance with local job search and redeveloping his resume, and was also open to out-of-area job search to gain self-sufficient full-time employment. Howard was in the restaurant industry for more than ten years managing his own business. With more than five years of experience as a service technician and propane delivery driver, Howard was quickly hired as a Service Technician with ER Energy out of Sparks, NV. He began full-time employment January 2015. Howard is happy with this position as it allows him to operate independently and maintain a portion of work locally. He is very thankful to the Quincy BCN for their assistance.

Congratulations Howard on a job well-done!!

Planning for Success

The first Technical Assistance workshop titled "Planning for Success!" was a success! Saturday, February 28th, the four hour session laid the groundwork for the next several months of Technical Assistance for the enrolled participants.

Business Consultant Laurie Wann covered:

- Business startup, including a checklist
- Entrepreneur strengths and weaknesses
- Personality types for working with customers
- Stages of business
- 5 year visions
- Action steps
- Identifying business target markets

Everyone was engaged and participated. Laurie Wann & Consultant, Jennifer Peterson, stayed after to answering questions and work one on one with the entrepreneurs.

Everyone was excited and ready to get going on their new adventure!
